

Spring 2018 Opportunities

Spring 10-Week Energy Conservation Competition

A 10-week challenge for schools to compete and save electricity and an opportunity to win prizes for achieving highest energy savings and best student action plans and campaigns.

Registration Deadline: February 1st

Duration of Competition: February 12th - April 22nd

Eligible: K-12 Schools in PG&E territory

Green Careers Conferences

The Green Careers Conference is a place for high school students to explore career pathways within the environmental sector.

Bay Area: April 12th

Los Angeles: April 24th

San Diego: May 2nd

Registration Deadline: First Come First Serve

Eligible: 9-12 Schools in California*

Earth Day Campaign Competition

$3,000 in prizes will be awarded to High Schools with the best campaigns that result in sustainability behavior change.

Registration Deadline: April 13th

Submission Deadline: May 18th

Eligible: 9-12 Schools in California*

Introduction to Green Technology Teacher Training

Learn how to teach this project-based learning course through a week of hands-on activities. IGT is designed to prepare students for careers in the energy industry and a UC A-G, D-Lab Science approved course.

Dates: Monday, June 25th - Friday, June 29th

Location: Orange Coast College Recycling Center, Costa Mesa, CA

Eligible: California High School Educators*

Advanced Green Technology Teacher Training

Learn how to teach this project-based learning course through a week of hands-on activities. AGT is designed to prepare students for careers in the energy industry and a UC A-G, G-Elective approved course and is the second in a two-course series with IGT.

Dates: Monday, July 30th - Friday, August 3rd

Location: TBD, in the East Bay San Francisco

Eligible: California High School Educators*

Learn more about all of these opportunities at:
www.energizeschools.org

*A school in PG&E, SoCalGas, SCE, or SDG&E territory